SYMPATHY - The campus extends sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. Sam Sill on the death of Mrs. Sill's mother in Kansas this week.

Come To The Cabaret

A cabaret on the top floor of the Library?
Yes!

On Sunday, Feb. 25, an exciting aura of gaiety and music will provide a background for a continental cuisine dinner. The Arrowhead Allied Arts Council has planned a Sunday to remember - a matinee, "Major Barbara," the Salvation Army Miss created by George Bernard Shaw, presented by the SBVC at 2 p.m., and a Cabaret on the top floor of the CSCSB Library, complete with gourmet buffet, wine, champagne and entertainment.

There will be art exhibits, strolling musicians, singing groups and dramatic happenings.

Tickets are $6 per person for the matinee, dinner and entertainment. They may be purchased from Bill Slout, campus representative on the Council, AD-160, Ext. 360, and Barbara Nolte, College Relations, AD-151, Ext. 418.
